

Booth Kammann

Booth Andrews Kammann is the Chief Executive Officer of the Girl Scout Council of the Southern Appalachians, Inc. The Council serves 46 counties in East Tennessee, Southwest Virginia, and Northwest Georgia and has approximately 13,500 girl and 5,000 volunteer members.

Kammann has held her current position since October 1, 2009. Prior to joining GSCSA, Kammann was the Executive Vice President and Managing Broker for Holrob Commercial Realty, LLC.

A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Kammann holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Sociology, as well as a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Tennessee's College of Law. She has been licensed to practice law in the State of Tennessee since 1997.

She has worked hard to build stronger communities as both a professional and a volunteer, having served as Board President for Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee and on multiple committees for United Way of Greater Knoxville.

Some of her other accomplishments include:

- Current member and past president - Nucleus Knoxville
- Current member – UTK College of Law Alumni Advisory Council
- Current member – UT National Alumni Association Women's Council
- UTK Chancellor's Associates Class of 2011
- Member of inaugural Greater Knoxville Business Journal '40 Under 40' class - 2007
- Leadership Knoxville – Class of 2006

Kammann has a personal commitment to physical fitness as a component to overall well being, and in 2009 completed her first half-marathon and first Olympic distance triathlon.

She is the mother to three children, Karly (9), Kelsey (6), and Kristopher (2).
